Eurit 595 – the independent communications solution for the office and your home

The telephone that means business. With our Eurit 595, small businesses can conduct two external and two internal calls simultaneously and transfer enquiry calls as well as external calls internally. Needless to say, it is also ideal for private users who appreciate an easy-to-use desktop phone and the convenience of cordless calling! Looking for an efficient way of staying in touch at all times? Our sophisticated answerphone is the ideal tool. The integrated DECT interface for up to 6 handsets gives you the independence you need when making calls. Eurit 595: feel free!
